

TOWN OF DORNOCH
AT BEGINNING OF 19TH CENTURY

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1 Cathedral  | 16 Archway                                 |
| 2 Churchyard   | 17 Prison + Cross                          |
| 3 Castle   | 18 School House                            |
| 4 Castle Gate  | 19 The Well                                |
| 5 D <sup>o</sup> Wall  | 20 Kenny M <sup>e</sup> Leod's House       |
| 6 Castle Court   | 21 Jean Grant's House                      |
| 7 Inn (M <sup>e</sup> Leslie's)  | 22 Miss Betty Gordon's                     |
| 8 Barclay's House  | 23 Sheriff M <sup>e</sup> Culloch's        |
| 9 Ruins, called Canon of Creech's House (Precentor)                                  | 24 Rector of Assynt's Manse                |
| 10 D <sup>o</sup> Canon of Clyne's House (Deanery)                                   | 25 Bishop's Vicar's Manse                  |
| 11 D <sup>o</sup> Franciscan Monastery   | 26 Manse of Vicar of Golspie (now Library) |
| 12 M <sup>e</sup> Boag's House   | 27 Parish Manse                            |
| 13 Baillie Ken th Sutherland's House, now Gunn's Inn(Sutherland Arms) | 28 Bailie Jaffray's House                  |
| 14 Stepping Stones across the Burn   | 29 Chancellor, Treasurers Manses           |
| 15 Bridge  | 30 Old Parish Manse                        |

Original cartographer unknown. Title, items 24 to 30 and parenthesis were added at some later date. Copy drawn by E. Hayward, April 1975.