

Alyson (16) is appointed Lord Lieutenant's Cadet

AN Army Cadet from Dornoch Detachment has been given the honour to be appointed as a Lord Lieutenant's Cadet.

Cadet Corporal Alyson MacKay (16), from Ross Company 1st Battalion The Highlanders, has been appointed to the year-long appointment as Lord Lieutenant's Cadet of Sutherland.

She will attend events which the Lord Lieutenant of Sutherland, Dr Monica Main, attends in her capacity as the Queens Representative to the County of Sutherland.

Cpl MacKay's presentation took place at the Dornoch Detachment Hall where the presentation was made by the Deputy Lord Lieutenant of Sutherland Maj Gen Patrick Marriot.

After the inspection of the detachment, he presented Cpl MacKay with her certificate of appointment. The presentation was attended by the Battalion's Commandant, Colonel Iain Cassidy, Cpl MacKay's parents and a councillor for the local area.
