

Co-op award to young curators

THE Young Curators Club at Dornoch museum Historylinks has been granted £2895 from the Co-op Community Fund.

The award will help the club with its programme of events next year.

Historylinks's Brian Munro said the museum was very grateful to all Co-op members who had helped raise the funding.

He said: "The club has gone from strength to strength under the guidance of Caroline Seymour, assisted by Alison Davis and Lorna Dalton.

"This money means that we can continue our packed programme of exciting sessions and events for the members of YCC for the coming year.

"The club is a great way to share with young people the amazing history and heritage of Dornoch."
