Dear Mr. Skinner

Roll of Honour.

I have received your letter of 24th inst. with Roll of Honour for the Parish. Gordon's christian name is George and he was a Signaller in the Royal Artillery. He was a teacher in Skerray when called up and may be on the Roll of that District. A brother, William L. Gordon ^{6th Seaforth's} was also killed. His home was at Rosehall and his brother here thinks his name should be on the Rosehall Roll.

Most of the other names appear all right to me, but one at least has a very slender claim. I refer to Sergeant J. Turner who appears to have got in because he married a local woman.

I may say I fell out with the local W.R. 1 over the same question when they handed over £10 to an Englishman and a Manxman married to local women.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr Skinner,

Enclosed, please find your list of names for the Roll of Honour.

I have checked the same and have selected three names from this village.

Two of them were members of the Merchant Navy who died as a result of enemy action.

If, however, they are not supposed to be included then just knock them off.

With kind regards.

Yours sincerely

W. C. Baker.
