

At Down on the Twentieth third day of October One thousand seven hundred & eighty seven years, In the presence of the Right Honourable Earl Forbes Provost, Mr. Hugh McCulloch, Lieut.
Col. James Guthrie and of W. Pratt, Major George Guthrie and of Stephen Hugh Rose Esq. of Cam. Macleods; Mr. John Barclay Dean of Guild, Oswald Dickson Esq. of Lathbrig Crooner, and several Members of the Council and Community of the Burgh of Down.

COMPEARED Mr. William Taylor Writer in Council. who was appointed, created and admitted
Burgher & Guild brother of the said Council and Community.
With full power to him from hence forward to hold and enjoy all and sundry liberties, privileges and immunities there unto belonging and he being ever & always sworn conform to the said Warrant, did thereupon ask and take the Jurament.
Extracted by Hugh McCulloch Esq.

