THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION SCOTLAND PRINCIPLES

To unite under one head all those men and women in Scotland who have served or are still serving in HER MAJESTY'S FORCES.

To assist them, their widows and dependants, in all their difficulties, in pension matters, in the relief of distress, in finding employment and re-establishing them on their return to civilian life.

To raise funds to carry on the above work.

To perpetuate the Memory of those who died in the Service of their country.

No Government Grant is asked for or received.

The Legion is democratic, non-sectarian, and not affiliated to or connected directly or indirectly with any political party or political organisation.

If you have served in any of Her Majesty's Forces you should JOIN NOW and help, not only yourself, but others as well.

WHAT THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION SCOTLAND OFFERS TO YOU

Comradeship at a high level with fellow ex-Servicemen and Women of the Armed Forces.

In many branches splendid clubs in which to meet with former comrades.

A wide range of indoor and outdoor sporting activities, competing for inter-Area, National and International trophies.

Year round programmes of social activities for members and their wives and friends.

The assistance and services of trained welfare and pensions officers to give advice and practical help with problems in these fields.

Finally, a challenge of every ex-Serviceman to take an active part in protecting the interests of the disabled and the widows and dependants of the fallen.
