

THREE TITLES FROM THE SCOTTISH SCREEN ARCHIVE TOTAL TIME ABOUT 30 MIN:

Title: [EAST SUTHERLAND]

Reference number: 2695

Date: 1952*

Director: [filmed by David Sime]

Sponsor: Countryside Club

Sound: silent

Colour: col

Fiction: non-fiction

Running time: 7.29 mins

Genre: amateur

Description: An amateur record of a tour around East sutherland, featuring such landmarks as the castles of Skibo and Dunrobin and Bonar Bridge. Includes footage of traditional salmon fishers at work and manual sheep shearing.

The amateur films were made for the Countryside Commission by the donor's uncle David Sime who was a pharmacist, photographer and President of the Countryside Commission.

Cataloguer's comment: The salmon fishermen at work in their wooden rowing boats, casting and pulling in nets by hand is fascinating to watch.
